

Fast Facts

Mission

The Washington Health Alliance serves to build a strong alliance among patients, doctors, hospitals, purchasers, health plans and others to promote health and improve quality and affordability by reducing overuse, underuse and misuse of health care services.

Founded

The Washington Health Alliance was formed in 2004 and was formerly known as the Puget Sound Health Alliance.

Headquarters

Washington Health Alliance
600 Stewart Street, Suite 824
Seattle, WA 98101

Members

More than 175 state, county and private employers, union trusts, health plans, hospitals and physician groups, government agencies, community based organizations, educational institutions, pharmaceutical companies and individuals.

Leadership

The governing group of the Alliance, the Board of Directors, consists of 21 members: 11 purchasers, six providers, four health plans and two community members.

Employees

The Alliance has an executive director and 11 staff members.

Funding

The Alliance is supported by membership dues and grants.

What we do

The Alliance provides focused, data-driven reports on health care throughout the state of Washington and serves as a convener of all the stakeholders in the health care system in Washington state.