

Washington Health Alliance
Consumer Engagement Committee Meeting
October 4, 2016

SUMMARY NOTES

Location: Teleconference

Committee Members Attending: Sarah Greene
Janie Hanson, SEIU 775 Benefits Trust
Carolyn Martin, National Libraries of Medicine, NW
Briana Ledesma, Regence
Andrew Radolf, retired, UNESCO
Sherry Reynolds
Kristin Sitcov, American Heart Association
Janna Wilson, King County

Committee Members Absent: Julie Bannester, CMS
Nici Feldhammer, American Cancer Society
Michelle George, PEBB
Ellen Jensen, retired, UW Computing & Communications
Jane Rozina, Aon Hewitt
Stan Sorscher, SPEEA

Staff and Guests Present: John Gallagher, Washington Health Alliance
Nancy Giunto, Washington Health Alliance
Emily Inlow-Hood, Washington Health Alliance
Laurie Kavanaugh, Washington Health Alliance
Sue Miller, Astellas

Welcome & Introductions

John Gallagher welcomed the group and facilitated introductions.

Discussion:

The committee discussed the opioid prescribing call to action, and how to reach consumers.

Laurie Kavanaugh presented QIC efforts and offered a summary of local and national efforts.

Messages and format of communications were discussed. Printed materials, events, and on-the-ground outreach through the ambassador program were recommended. Reaching out to faith communities and provider communities was also recommended.

Wrap-up